Classic Literature Reading List for Middle School Students

By: LuAnn Schindler

Many middle school students enjoy the connection with a young adult novel, but classic literature never goes out of style. Several humanities organizations have established a classic literature reading list that emphasizes the importance of reading timeless books. This abbreviated list introduces new characters and alien worlds to the middle school set. Several of these books are commonly taught in middle school English classes, so adding them to a summer reading list can give your child an advantage when they come up during the school year.

To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee
Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson
Lord of the Flies by William Golding
Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury
The Diary of a Young Girl by Anne Frank
Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe
1984 by George Orwell
Little Women (Little Women, #1) by Louisa May Alcott
The Catcher in the Rye by J.D. Salinger
Dracula by Bram Stoker
The Count of Monte Cristo by Alexandre Dumas
Animal Farm by George Orwell
The Swiss Family Robinson: The Graphic Novel by Richard Blandford
Frankenstein by Mary Shelley
To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee
